What are you thinking about, Bintang?

That's typical for some teenagers to act out. You should probably get involved a bit more.

You can help him with his homework. Let him know that you are available to help.

In that case you can make short breaks and play a game together. At least you will know what games he is interested in.

I'm thinking about my son. He's tired of studying. How can I motivate him to study?

What should I do? I always reward him for a good job, but I don't think this is the right way.

Sounds like a good idea. But he is more interested in playing video games than learning.

Great. Thanks.
